YOUR FINANCIAL AID HISTORY INFORMATION

The information below is the total amount of student loans that you owe. These loans are administered by the U.S. Department of Education (ED). You should confirm that these loan totals are correct. You can use your Federal Student Aid PIN to view details on the individual loans that make up these totals at the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) Web site at www.nsls.ed.gov. For more information about your PIN, go to www.pin.ed.gov. If you feel that the amounts listed on this page are incorrect, or you have other questions related to a loan, you should contact the loan servicer indicated on the NSLDS Web site. You can obtain general information about each of the types of loans that are listed below by visiting our studentaid.ed.gov website.

Note that the 'Subsidized' and 'Unsubsidized' amounts include the appropriate portions of any Consolidation Loans you may have. If there is an amount listed for 'FFEL Unallocated Consolidation Loans' it is because we could not determine whether those balances were subsidized or unsubsidized.

Remember you are responsible for repaying all of the amounts that you borrow, plus interest. As a general rule, with an assumed interest rate of 5%, the monthly payment amount over a ten-year repayment period would be approximately $10.61 for every $1,000 that you borrowed. Of course your actual repayment amount will depend upon how much you borrow, the interest rate when you enter repayment, and how long your repayment term is.

COMMENTS ABOUT YOUR INFORMATION

Based on the information we have on record for you, your EFC is 0. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your school will use your EFC to determine your financial aid eligibility for federal grants, loans, and work study, and possible funding from your state and school.

Your FAFSA has been selected for a review process called verification. Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents from you and your parent(s).

WHAT YOU MUST DO NOW (Use the checklist below to make sure that all of your issues are resolved.)

If your parents have now completed their 2008 tax return, correct this SAR to reflect the income and tax information reported on their tax return. Select the 'Make Corrections' button at the bottom of the page to make the correction. If your parents have not yet completed their tax return, you must correct this SAR to reflect the income and tax information reported on their tax return once it is filed.

If you need to make corrections to your information, select the 'Make Corrections' button at the bottom of the page. You must use your Federal Student Aid PIN to access your record online. If you need additional help with your SAR, contact your school's financial aid office or the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243). If your mailing address or e-mail address changes, you can make the correction online or call 1-800-4-FED-AID and ask a customer service representative to make the change for you.

You reported that you took and passed a series of high school courses that may qualify you for an Academic Competitiveness Grant (ACG).

The Financial Aid Administrator at your college will determine if you are eligible for an ACG. All follow-up information about your grant eligibility will come from the financial aid office at your college.

When you completed your FAFSA, you responded 'YES' to the question about your plans to take coursework that will enable you to become a teacher. We asked this question because there is a new federal student aid program for students who plan on becoming teachers. You should go to www.teachgrant.ed.gov to learn more and find out what steps you must take to be considered for the program. If you cannot access the Web site, you should call 1-800-4-FED-AID (1-800-433-3243).

At this point, the school(s) listed on your application have access to your information. The school(s) may put together or change an aid package based on your Expected Family Contribution and notify you.

The amount of aid you receive from a school will depend on the cost of attendance at that school, your enrollment status (full-time, three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional appropriations, and other factors. Review your financial aid notification from the school(s) or contact the Financial Aid Administrator at the school(s).

Note: Your school has the authority to request copies of certain financial documents to verify information you reported on your application.

The Office of Management and Budget Wants You To Know:

According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, no persons are required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The valid OMB control number for this information collection is 1845-0008. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to be an average of 10 to 34 minutes, including the time to review instructions, search existing data sources, gather the data needed, and complete and review the information collected. If you have any comments concerning the accuracy of the time estimate(s) or suggestions for improving this form, write to: U.S. Department of Education, Washington, DC 20202-4651. If you have any comments or concerns regarding the status of your individual submission of this form, write directly to: Federal Student Aid Information Center, P.O. Box 84, Washington, DC 20044.

By answering questions 104a through 104t, and signing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you give permission to the U.S. Department of Education to provide information from your application to the college(s) listed in Step Six. You also agree that such information is deemed to incorporate by reference the certification statement in Step Seven of the financial aid application. The certification statement can be viewed at www.fafsa.ed.gov/help/ffdef39.htm.

To protect the confidentiality of your application data, you should never give, share or disclose your Federal Student Aid PIN with anyone, including commercial service providers that provide assistance with the financial aid process. You should keep your PIN in a safe location. If you think your PIN has been compromised, please go to Federal Student Aid's PIN Web site at www.pin.ed.gov and change your PIN.

WARNING: If you are convicted of drug distribution or possession for an offense that occurred while you were receiving Title IV aid, your eligibility for Title IV student financial aid is subject to suspension or termination. If your drug conviction status changes at any time during the 2009-2010 award year, you must update your answer to question 23.
